

Retreat at Piano Manor

A get-away for growth-minded piano teachers.

Piano Teachers: You are invited!

Looking to refresh and re-energize your teaching? Retreat at Piano Manor is the perfect get-away to find relaxation and achieve growth as a piano teacher. This unique three-day retreat will take place at Joy Morin's home in Bowling Green, Ohio from August 17-19, 2017.

Our Theme for 2017:

METHOD MINING: UNCOVERING NUGGETS OF WISDOM IN PIANO METHOD BOOKS

Let's put our heads together, share our insights, and discover pedagogical trends and evolutions in piano method books across the decades. As a group, we'll explore the development of piano methods beginning with early treatises and concluding with piano methods published in the 21st century. You'll work with your fellow attendees to review method books in-depth and share your insights and findings. Equipped with a larger perspective of piano method books, you'll teach more effectively and leave inspired to try something new with your students.

Thursday - Saturday, August 17-19, 2017

Hosted by Joy Morin | Meals prepared by Amy Chaplin of PianoPantry.com

$200 early bird registration | $250 after June 30th

Details and registration available at:

pianoteacherretreat.com