

Retreat at Piano Manor

A getaway for growth-minded piano teachers.

Piano Teachers: You are invited!

Looking to refresh and re-energize your teaching? Retreat at Piano Manor is the perfect getaway to find relaxation and achieve growth as a piano teacher. This unique three-day retreat led by Joy Morin will take place at in Southwest Michigan from June 8-10, 2026.

Our Theme for 2026:

BY OUR OWN EARS: HEARING WHAT WE TEACH

Have you ever wished you could better “hear” and “think in music” — and wondered how to nurture those same skills in your piano students? Join us for a retreat led by Joy Morin, designed to awaken and strengthen your inner musician. You’ll experience an immersive, interactive approach to musicianship shaped by the research of music learning theorist Edwin E. Gordon and the teaching approaches that have grown from it. Through listening, movement, musical interaction, and guided discussion with fellow piano teachers, you’ll gain practical next steps and a flexible framework you can use with students of many ages and levels — primarily off the bench, with thoughtful connections to the piano throughout.
